A NEW GENERATION OF WILDCATS

1990 its the REAL thing!

CLASS HISTORY — 1990

Upon entering Westport High's halls, the Class of 1990 could not imagine what they would come to accomplish. Computer Whiz McCabe became our advisor leading us into the best four years that Westport High School has ever seen. The first major event for our freshman class was the class officers' election. Leadin our class was John Kennedy as President, Patricia Ledoux as Vice-President, Chris Briand as Secretary, Derek Chase as Treasurer, and Thomas DeMello a Representative. Throughout this year we held very wet car washes and sold candy bars, resulting in much weight gained. Topping off the year, the spirit an pizzaz demonstrated at the Pep Rally was only a hint of what was yet to come.

Refreshed from our summer vacation, the Class of "90" returned "alive and kicking." Once again we held our class officers' election; by a surprise vote, Collee Miranda was voted in overwhelmingly as President, followed by Aura Alves as Vice-President, Patricia Ledoux as Secretary, Jen Sousa as Treasurer, Jen Demer Chris Briand and Jodi DeMello as Representatives. The Sophomore class was alive and kicking, beating the Class of 1989 in the Pep Rally. Ending our year, w held our ring dance at White's Restaurant in Westport on April 14, 1987.

Finally as upperclassmen, the Class of "90" was back. This year's elections had a twist. Colleen Miranda was in leadership again as President, but instead o one Vice-President, we had two, Chris Briand and Aura Alves as Assistant Vice-President, along with Julie Carreiro as Secretary, Patricia Ledoux as Treasure Tricia Cabral, Candy Whitehead, and Jodi DeMello as Representatives.

In October of 1988 the Class of "90" suffered a great loss of a dear friend, Jodi DeMello, due to a car accident. This tragedy caused the Class of "90" to uni more than ever before. A great example of this was our placement as number one in the Pep Rally. Also in December, we attended our first Snowball Dance wit the Class of "89" at White's Restaurant in Westport. Returning from a six week teacher's strike, we began organizing our Junior Prom. The result of our har work paid off in a great Junior Prom held at Venus De Milo in Swansea, June 1, 1989.

Finally, as Seniors we elected our lifetime officers; Denise Normandin as President, Aura Alves as Vice-President, Julie Carreiro as Secretary, Patrick Mirand as Treasurer, Tricia Cabral and Colleen Miranda as Representatives. Our first major event of the year was the Haunted House held on October 30, 1989. O second major task was our second annual Basketball Clinic, which was, once again, a great success. Third on our non-stop agenda, was our talent show held o November 30, 1989. The United "90" Wildcats rocked the house coming out on top at the Pep Rally. After a fantastic Pep Rally, we danced the evening away the Snowball Dance held at the Somerset Lodge on January 12, 1990 accompanied by the Class of 1991. On Wednesday, January 17, the class of 1990 suffere another tragic loss with the death of Greg Gifford. Jodi and Greg, our best buddies, we'll always love you.

In April, at the fashion show, the "90" Wildcats strutted their paws on stage. Throughout the year, we sold candy bars, flowers, and held car washe Rounding off this last wonderful year filled with joy and sadness, we attended our Senior Prom held at the Sheraton Islander Inn.

Collecting our memories the Class of "90" joined together for the last time. The time which we have all been waiting for arrived, but we couldn't help feelin sad. Leaving on this note, The Class of 1990 bids farewell to Westport High School.

GENERATION OF FRIENDS

Although this may be the last time you see the Class of 1990 together in pictures, in our hearts and in our minds we will always be together. We have had our share of good times and bad, triumphs and tragedies, love and war, good grades and bad, but despite it all everyone in the Class of 1990 rose to the top. Together we stand, divided we fall!

AN OLD GENERATION

AND A NEW

JUNIOR PROM
JUNE 1, 1989

HOLD ON TO THE NIGHT

When I watch a wave roll in
I see the freedom of the sea.
So mysterious and intriguing this creature is.
It leaves imagination all up to me.

And in this sea I find a boy,
So loving and cheerful at birth.
So full of life and craziness
That there seems no one more free on Earth.

And just as the wave, this boy lives life
To the fullest and happiest he can.
He parties it up and soars to new heights,
And he eventually turns into a man.

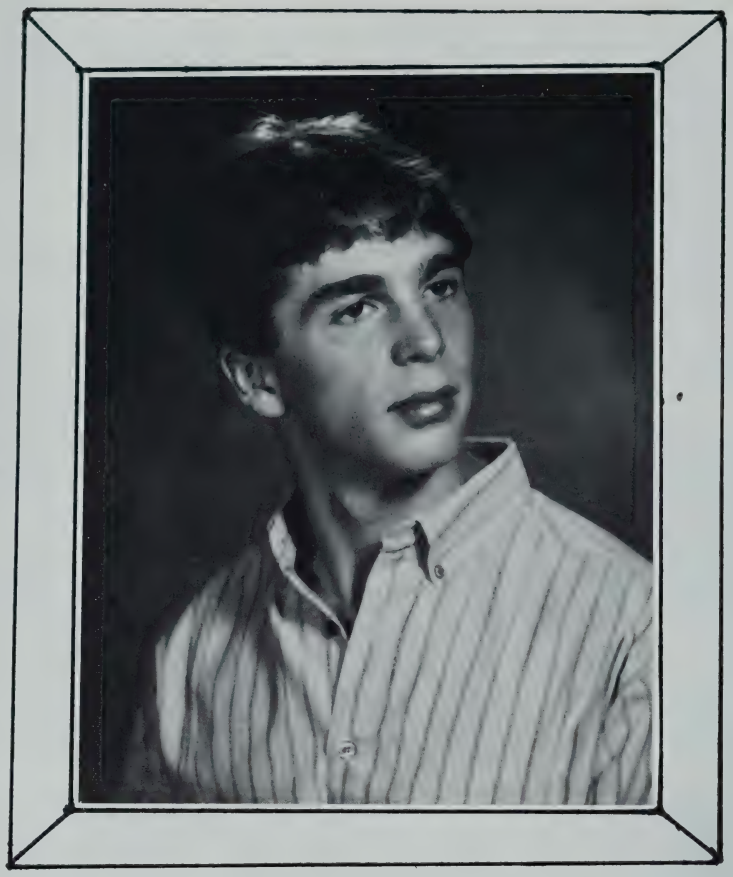
Just as the wave was once strong and bold,
So was the daring boy.
But as wave and man both reach their peaks,
They fall over and break — like little, fragile toys.

But as with everything else not even the wave,
So bold and so strong, can withstand the test of time.
And when it crashes and reaches the shore,
I look up at the sky and hope for a sign.

And when I look up I see a bright light,
And think of the things that used to be.
The wave that was so strong and so full of life,
And the boy who was so special and dear to me.

I think to myself, "Why must they both crash?"
And can't seem to find any reply.
But then I look up into that bright light
And realize the answer is somewhere up in the sky.

When I watch a wave roll in
Or see a bright light in the sky
I realize how precious life really is,
And then I almost start to cry.



Memories of a Friend

As school days pass we think of a friend that was special in his own way to every one that knew him. He was full of life and the sky was the limit for him. He was known best for his humorous pranks, and he was always trying to make everyone laugh. When the weekends rolled around he could only be found at a party. Greg S. Gifford was a youth just becoming a man. He was always on the go and there was never a dull moment when Greg was around. He was the type of person that let nothing get him down. Greg was always high spirited in everything he did, and deep down in his heart he cared for many things. He was very ambitious and dreamed of being successful. Somehow we know that we will never forget we lost a close friend. We will always remember the good times that we have shared. Greg will never be far away. All of the memories of fun that we hold will never fade from our hearts or our minds. Greg will always be that friend that was and will be 4-ever young!
